MRS. SUSANNA HESS DIED ON SUNDAY

Funeral Services Will Be Held Tomorrow at Late Home.

Mrs. Susanna Coogie Hess, mother of Mrs. William Klump of this city, died Sunday shortly before eight o'clock at the residence of her daughter on Morgantown avenue. She was aged 82 years and her death was the result of diseases incident to advanced age.

Mrs. Hess was the widow of Ezra Hess, and she formerly resided at Riversville. However, she had been a resident of this city for the last fifteen years at the home of her daughter. Surviving her are several children, Mrs. Emory Snider, Arnetteville; Mrs. N. H. McIlroy, Morgantown; Mrs. William Klump, Fairmont; and J. A. Hess, of Riversville. Miss Helen Hess of this city is a granddaughter of the deceased.

Funeral services will be held on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Klump and the body will be interred in Maple Grove cemetery, Underliaker Cunningham in charge. It was announced that the body would be taken to Morgantown today for interment but plans were changed later.

DEATH OF INFANT

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Poe, of Guffey street, East Side, died yesterday at the home of the parents. The body was taken to Grafton this afternoon for interment.

The World's Best The Marvelous Marvel of the 20th Century The Autopiano

THIS PIANO has received 16 gold medals from all parts of the globe as a reward of its superiority over all other player pianos. It is manufactured in the largest factory in the world devoted exclusively to the making of player pianos.

The Autopiano, because of its wonderful tone qualities, has the endorsement of such wonderful artists and composers as Louisa Tetrazzini, Mary Garden, Victor Herbert, Traquinia Tarquini, Giacomo Puccini, and many others. This wonderful instrument makes musicians of the entire family. Any little child three years old can play it. There are possibly more autopianos in Fairmont homes, than any other two makes combined. This piano is being demonstrated daily at House's Music Store—you can buy it at a very low price during the month of December. Easy payments can be arranged without interest. This piano would make a beautiful gift to the family for Christmas.
